Varsity boasts 6-1 record

Raiders win two

The Raider varsity basketball team continued its winning ways last week with victories over Altavista and Brookville. The Raiders enter the holiday break period with a 6-1 record and a half-game Seminole District lead.

Appomattox staged a come-from-behind 50-44 victory in Wednesday's contest against a powerful Altavista team.

Altavista out-scored the Raiders 12-9 in the first period of play and 14-12 in the second quarter to carry a 26-21 lead into the locker room at half time.

In the third quarter, the Raiders regained some of their lost ground, scoring 11 points to Altavista's eight. It was the fourth quarter, however, when the Raider's star shone bright.

"The fourth quarter was the difference in the game," commented Coach Coty Dickerson. The Raiders out-scored Altavista 18-10 in the final period of play, and "played good defense when we had to," according to the Raider Coach.

The Raiders hit on six of nine freethrow attempts in the fourth quarter. For the game, Appomattox went 12 for 19 from the foul line, and sank 19 field goals. Kim Humbles, Ron Carter, and Jeff Miller led the Raiders in scoring, with 15, 11 and 10 points, respectively. Norman Turner, with eight points and Rick Caldwell with six points rounded out the scoring for Appomattox.

Jeff Miller gathered in 12 rebounds for the Raiders and Norman Turner collected eight for Appomattox. Kim Humbles had five assists for the Raiders.

High scorers for Altavista were Dave Bradwell with 13 points and Frank Poindexter with ten.

The Raiders had an easier time of it Friday night against Brookville, in a game Appomattox won, 55-47.

The Raiders scored 14 points in the first quarter and 14 more in the second period to carry a 28-23 lead into the locker room at the half. Brookville scored 12 points to the Raiders' 10 in the third quarter, but the Raiders came back in the final period to outscore the Bees 17-12 and record the 55-47 win.

Jeff Miller and Rick Caldwell scored 14 and 12 points, respectively, to lead Raider scorers. They were followed by Norman Turner and Ron Carter, with eight points each; Kim Humbles with seven points; Mayhery with four points; and Jody Williams with two points.

"Jeff Miller's nine points in the fourth quarter (four field goals and one foul shot) made the difference in this game," according to Coach Dickerson.

The Raiders hit on 23 field goals and made nine of 14 freethrow attempts for a 64.3 percent foul-shot performance. Norman Turner recorded eight reboundsand Jeff Miller seven for Appomattox. In addition, Kim Humbles had five assists and Rick Caldwell three for the Raiders.

Now you can eat snakes

Have you ever tried pan-fried rattlesnake, fried beaver or sweet and sour groundhog? How about 'possum and sweet potatoes, deerburger pie or bear steak?

If these unusual wild game dishes don't appeal to your taste buds, there's sure to be something that will in the recently published "4-HWild Game Food Guide and Cookbook." The 48-page booklet covers traditional game such as squirrel, rabbit and deer, as well as the more exotic wild animals found in Virginia.

Michael J. Clifford, Nottoway County Extension agent, served as editor of the publication and combines with with wisdom in this entertaining and informative book.

An accomplished hunter and cook himself, Clifford said, "Far more wild game meat has been ruined by the hunter than by the cook. Proper field dressing, cooling and handling is vitally important." For this reason, he included sections on field dressing, skinning and butchering along with approximately 100 recipes. There's even a "recipe" and directions for tanning hides for the more industrious hunter.

Proceeds from the book sales will be donated to the Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center.

The cookbook was a joint effort of the Nottoway and Amelia County Extension offices," Clifford explained, "and was prepared to raise funds for renovating and expanding the Holiday Lake center."

The 157-acre camp serves thousands of 4-H'ers and adult groups from throughout Central Virginia.

The cookbook is available at the local extension office, or can be obtained by sending $3 to Michael J. Clifford, Extension agent, Nottoway, Va. 23855. Make check payable to "Nottoway 4-H Fund."

The "4-H Wild Game Guide and Cookbook" is an excellent guide to handling and preparing Virginia's wild game from the field to the table.

Pamplin AARP meets

By JIM COLLINS

The Pamplin Chapter of American Association of Retired Persons met on Tues., Dec. 15 at 12 noon in the fellowship hall of the Pamplin Charge United Methodist Church.

There was a record attendance and the music played on the piano by Miss Dorothy K. Tucker was so well enjoyed that Mrs. Thelma Hamilton also from Lynchburg, who conducted the sing along, had no trouble getting songs with gusto from all those who were present.

Mr. Charles Bosserman from the Farmville chapter swore in the new officers in a real professional manner.

Watch the Times-Virginian for our Jan. 19 program notice.

Letter

Editor:

When I entered River Ridge Mall, I saw old and young people, and little children enjoying the scenery. I felt Christ all around because I saw Him in them.

While shopping in Thalhimers, I purchased a nativity scene. The sales clerks were so nice. As they helped put the scene together, customers passing by were commenting on it.

I felt so good. I know the Holy Spirit was there. A young boy helped me carry the scene to my car and he wished me a Merry Christmas.

To me this is what Christmas is all about. Christ-like in each of us.

Sincerely,
Margaret Godsey
